

For immediate release

2011 IDOC Class of Experienced & Emerging Leaders

NEW CASTLE, INDIANA (November 18, 2011) – The Indiana Department of Correction (IDOC) graduated 37 staff from the Commissioner’s Experienced and Emerging Leaders (EEL) program at the Correctional Training Institute on November 16, 2011.

The graduates included staff from the IDOC, Indiana Department of Natural Resources, Family and Social Services Administration, and Indiana Department of Homeland Security.

Bruce Lemmon, Commissioner of the IDOC, applauded the graduates, “We are very proud of the Experienced and Emerging Leadership program and this cohort. The graduates have taken a look at challenges and issues facing the Department, and offered ideas and solutions to those challenges.”

Richard Curry, IDOC’s Executive Director of Staff Development Emergency Operations, congratulated and thanked the graduates. Director Curry challenged the graduates noting, “We are facing many challenges and now the challenge is to apply what you have learned in the EEL program.”

Class of 2011 graduates include: Ron C. Allen, Brad Alspaugh, Matthew Andrick, Michael Biddle, Jennifer Cline, Malcolm Coates, John Cosich, Candy Fielden, Toby Foster, Curtis Gillespie, Adriane Harrison, Keith Hartzell, Kurt Harumal, Richard Hayes, Travis Hogeston, Tracy Irvin, Pamela James, Leslie Johnson, Angela Lobb, Donna Mesker, Yul Lee, Dorothy Morris, Richard Nalls, Jaime Raderstorf, Betrina Randall,

Shad Rice, Michael Riley, Tricia Roberts, Terri Rowe, Tom Sherron, Aaron Smith, David Sonnenberg, Ashley Taflinger, Tammara Todd, Shirley Washington, Kenny Wireman, and Lunsondra Woods.

###

Media Contact:

Douglas S. Garrison

Chief Communications Officer

dsgarrison@idoc.in.gov

(317) 232-5780